Tuesday to Friday, 9am to 4pm and 1.5 hours prior to events.

The following exhibitions are presented by the Moreton Bay Arts Council. Free entry. Artwork is available for purchase at the box office. Visit moretonbayartscouncil.org for more information.

Hydro Power

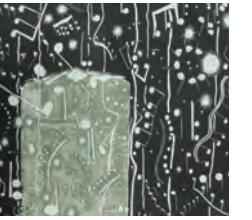
21 July to 30 August 2020

Artist Barbara Vivash's work reflects a life-long fascination with water. The artwork aspires to capture some essence, some semblance of hydropower observed in the Queensland rain forests, coastal beaches and omnipresent rivers with acrylic and watercolour featured on multi-media.

Retired

1 September to 27 September 2020

'We are 5 + 1'- are a group of 'retired' artist/printmakers, who have taken printmaking to the cutting edge. 'We are 5 +1' explore and experiment to create a wide range of innovative art works. Artists: Ellie Nielsen, Maureen Van de Zalm, Malcolm Cassidy, Neen Burton, Margaret Barnett, Trudy Stephens.



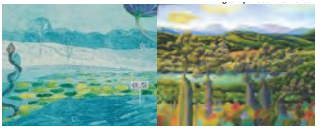
Clay on Display

29 September to 25 October 2020

Annual Redcliffe Potters Group exhibition. This exhibition by local potters includes sculptures, stoneware, hand-built pottery and wheel-thrown tableware and whimsical hand built figurines, ceramic jewellery and flowers and more. Come along, enjoy the creativity, while supporting your local potters and picking up some great unique gifts.

Two D Three D

27 October to 22 November 2020



Ellie Neilsen and Margaret Barnett are artists with very different backgrounds. Ellie works flat 2D and Margaret works 3D. Most people are familiar with print making – Ellie's forte, but are not so familiar with Margaret's forte with Shibori techniques. Both artist are internationally known. An exhibition not to be missed.

Colours - Bright & Light and Black & White

24 November to 20 December 2020

Featuring four local artists, Jan Cunningham, Deborah Purcell , Danielle Latta and Maddy Bull, who have rediscovered artistic adventures while exploring the colours of the rainbow and the simplicity of black and white.

Isolation, Hibernation, Celebration

12 January to 21 February 2021

Explore artworks by artists from the Moreton Bay Arts Council and how they interpreted and recorded their journey through the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.
